

Sample Veterinary Technician Resume

Richard Anderson

1234, West 67 Street,
Carlisle, MA 01741,
(123)-456 7890.

Objective: Looking for a challenging position of Sr. Veterinary Technician

Outline of Qualifications:

- 8+ years experience as a Veterinary Technician.
- Detailed knowledge of the state & federal laws, rules & regulations related to animal health.
- Significant knowledge of treatments, avoidance, and the control of common infections of animals.
- Deep knowledge of practices utilized in the animal husbandry, the farm managing, and the livestock marketing.
- Profound knowledge of, except diagnosis of, the physiological, pathological, and the biological situations recognizable in an ante and the postmortem inspections.
- Outstanding knowledge of methods included in functioning of animal necropsy.
- Special ability to help in pathological tests of animals and animal tissues.
- Great skill to define crisis, gather data, establish fact, and represent valid finales.
- Good ability to advise corrective acts to supervisors, concerning violators of the state & federal laws, rules, regulations relating to the animal health activities.
- Outstanding ability to keep records, and arrange reports and correspondence associated to work.
- Deep ability to manage and control animals, involving companion animals, livestock, and exotic species.
- Brilliant ability to talk successfully with others.
- Good ability to keep beneficial public relations.

Work Experience:

Veterinary Technician II (1997 - Present)

University of New York, NY

- Contribute in examination of livestock supposed of diseases, by gathering diagnostic examples and specimens (tissue, blood, urine) under a direction of Veterinarian.
- Control animals for sample collection or testing by Veterinarian.
- Enclose animal specimens and distributes to Dept. of Agriculture lab or other suitable lab.

- Control animal vaccinations, take care of animals for infection, and carry out euthanasia on the livestock, or other animals as suitable, under direction of Veterinarian.
- Help Veterinarian in examining horses at the horse racing services.
- Study and review records of the sale yards to observe the development of animals.
- Get animal ID information by inspection of animals and profiles, containing breed, sex, ear tag figures, age, and brands.
- Recognize animals by many techniques including tattooing, ear tagging, and branding.
- Perform investigations of suspected animal act violations and record proof found so corrective actions should be in use.
- Note down narrative details on each visible animal law violation explaining the proof, interview result, and other related facts.
- Suggest to supervisor corrective act like corrective orders, written warnings, and action, and notify supervisor of all acts to correct insignificant violations.
- Enforce and issue quarantines under direction of administrator.
- Help in check of animal facilities like dog pounds, pet stores, horse racing facility, riding stable, and investigation facilities to inspect the safety of animals.
- Offer general disease run information to engaged parties and notify them of where data can be found.

Veterinary Technician I (1995 - 1997)
University of New York, NY

- Carried out and contributed in regular and consistent technical duties like supplying and the observing of the health condition to give for health care of the animals.
- Evaluated possible problems concerning health and social wellbeing of animals; informed supervisor of apparent problems.
- Helped in association and setting up of events to make possible the presentation of processes connected to the research projects; harmonized and contributed in performance of regular and standardized trials to comprise weighing animals, getting specimens, and monitoring behavioral patterns.
- Worked as a liaison to veterinarian in offering health care to animals; managed every day actions and medications for the animals as trained or essential; helped in or offered regular and urgent situation medical treatments.
- Reported and acquired actions to approve alterations in the environmental situations which influence the welfare of animals.
- Prepared and managed particular diets to make sure sufficient vitamins and find mineral elements; found out animal food requirements and put standard food orders with dealers, making sure best price and range in diet; nourished and watered animals according to plan.
- Made sure entire and correct maintenance of each animal's records.
- Helped in handing out health checks and associated necessities for inter state and global delivery of animals; transported animals, equipment, and materials; run motor vehicles as needed.

Education & Training:

Registered Veterinary Technician

University of New York, NY

1995: Associate Degree in the Veterinary Technology